COMPETITION BRIEF

Renderings are powerful tools that act as a magic bridge taking oneself from drawings to completed designs in the blink of an eye. A rendering can spark the imagination like nothing else.

The aim is to create one spectacular rendering of an architectural form or space. There is no restrictions as to what you can render, this competition encourages participants to create unconventional and exceptional renders. The renders can be done digitally or by hand. The render should be accompanied with an interesting title and a short write up explaining the render.
